ing This Big Offer—Work Now
as You Have Never Worked Before, For the Next Few Days' Efforts Mean a Lot to You.

As has been demonstrated many times, the person who is going to accomplish something in the future never accomplishes anything. Today is the day of all days to do things.
Never put off until tomorrow, or next week, or the week after, that which can be done today, as tomorrow may never come. Also remember that delays are dangerous, as it is always the unexpected that happens at the most inopportune moments. So get busy during this big vote offer and gather in all subscriptions possible, for as sure as the sun rises the vote schedule will take a big drop after this offer expires, and continue so until the close of the campaign.

Don't give heed to the croakers and drones who are too lazy to work themselves, and who would be crazy to see you a winner.

They will endeavor to sap your enthusiasm by malignant hints as to the all-god unfairness of a contest. They will conjure up imaginary competitors with millions of votes in reserve, or tell you some example of a contest in bygone days in which they worked like slaves and got nothing. Of course these persons never did anything of the kind. Possibly one or two may have embarked in some competition in a halfhearted way and became fatigued after the first week.
They are of the species that were born tired and will remain so ever after. These very same people condemn a contest and say it is unfair, when they really know nothing about it. They do not even stop to investigate, but keep on knocking.
They are of the species who gossip about their neighbors when their backs are turned, but tell them nice things when they meet them face to face. They are habitual knockers who knock their city and their state just to have something to talk about.

The management of the Bourbon News cordially invites the contestants and their friends to call at the office and see the system under which the campaign is run. It is a system that can't be beaten and one that can't beat you. There is no possible way that anyone can tell how many votes any contestant has in reserve unless

Milk Supply.

The city of Paducah is congratulating itself on the fact that the State Inspectors have pronounced the milk supply of that city to be as good as any in Kentucky. Congratulations are in order.

There has been remarkable improvement in the milk sold in Kentucky cities and this has been due to the energetic efforts of pure food officials and health officers, who have been eliminating the unsanitary dairies and cleaning up diseased herds of cattle. As a result of their efforts there are more up to date dairies, and the dairymen are taking greater pains to see that the public is supplied with milk of better quality.

The milk supply of the State is not all that it should be, as much remains to be done, but it is gratifying to know that in all our bigger centres of population something has been accomplished toward the protection of the interests of the public. There is reason to believe that even on the farms there is more attention paid to the purity of the product than was the case before the pure milk campaign was begun in the cities. Kentucky now has many sanitary dairies where formerly she had few. She needs many more, as there is great room for the expansion of the dairy industry. It is more important, however, that we should have a few clean dairies than that we should have many of the other kind. Sanitation should come first; when standards are established along that line it will be better, both for the dairymen and for the people in general.

Maps Prepared.

The Postoffice Department has announced that by December 15 it will have prepared maps of the parcels post system, showing the rates from all Kentucky points to elsewhere in the United States and to each other.

Victory for Circuit Clerks.

"When the Legislature enacted Section 1722 it intended to allow the clerks of the circuit courts $5 for their services in each case of the Commonwealth against a defendant charged with a felony, and that this fee is due and payable when the case is taken from the docket by either dismissing or quashing the indictment or by a trial before a jury," said the Court of Appeals, deciding a contention over fees in favor of L. P. Lay, clerk of the Whitley Circuit Court. The opinion settles a much mooted question as to whether the clerk is entitled to his fee of $5 for each individual defendant when several are named in a joint indictment.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—An exceptionally fine crop of tobacco belonging to J. C. Bosworth, deputy sheriff of Fayette county, was sold at the Shelbourne warehouse Tuesday at an average of $22.50 per hundred. One basket of fancy cigarette stuff out of his offering went to the high price of $36 per hundred.

—A. J. A. Alexander, of Fayette, sold at auction in Lexington Tuesday sixty head of Duroc Jersey hogs. The prices ranged from $6.50 to $70, the latter price being obtained for an aged boar. Sows sold for $65 and $70. McKee Bros., of Versailles, with whom George Clayton, formerly of Bourbon, is connected, were among the largest purchasers.

—The suit of Jesse N. Fishback against Perry C. Ward, involving about $80 worth of corn, has been appealed from the Nicholas county court to the Circuit Court of that county. The case has been tried six times and has been appealed for the seventh time. Already the costs amount to several times the value of the corn.

—The Boys Corn Club Show and Rural School Fair of Nicholas county will be held in Carlisle on Saturday, December 7. All of the schools in the county will be represented.

—Henry T. Hopkins, of Sharpburg, has sold to Albert Dav, of Fleming county, 105 head of two year old cattle for August and September delivery, 1913, at $7 per hundred.

Attacks Section of Postal Laws.

The opening attack upon the constitutionality of the sections of the recent postal appropriation act requiring newspapers to publish a list of their subscribers, stockholders, as well as to label paid political articles as "advertisements," was made Monday before the Supreme Court of the United States in a printed brief filed by Robert C. Morris and G. B. Plante, on behalf of the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin of New York. The case is set for argument orally on December 2.

The attorneys for the newspapers contend principally that the sections violate the constitutional liberty of the 25,000 newspapers, magazines and periodicals published throughout the United States.

Unlike public service corporations, the newspapers, the attorneys claim, possess no elements which give the Government a right to regulate their business, except insofar as the public morals or public welfare is concerned.

"Absolutely no authority can be found for a contention that the provisions complained of in this act were enacted for the public benefit," declare the attorneys. "Neither the government nor the public at large can be benefited by the knowledge of the private business affairs and the financial condition of the owner of a newspaper. On the other hand, the provisions objected to in the act are more than unreasonable in their demands upon the owner of a newspaper—they are perniciously inquisitorial. They strike down private rights and invade personal freedom and destroy private property, in that they ruin the publication if it refuses to meet their arbitrary demands, for ruin would surely follow the denial of the privileges of the mail.

"In the act individual injury is inflicted without any corresponding benefit to society. If the corporation is doing business upon borrowed money, for which it has issued its notes or other obligations, it must publish to the world the holders of such obligations, to the annoyance of such lenders and the endangering of its credit. It must show the vulnerable spots in its financial armor to the benefit of its competitors and enemies. Banks and other large financial institutions will refuse to loan it money for fear that they will be held out and advertised as supporting or controlling its editorial or political policy. Nor are these fanciful objections. To the business man they are real and alarming."

The attorneys warn lawyers, doctors and other professional men that, if this act is upheld, Congress may equally require them to publish and disclose the names of their clients.

Asks Injunction Against L. & N.

Judge A. P. Humphrey, representing the Western Union Telegraph Company, filed suit Tuesday in the Federal Court at Louisville asking an injunction to prevent the Louisville and Nashville from interfering with the poles, wires and other property of the Western Union Company along the railroad right of way until litigation now pending between the corporations be settled. The previous facts in this litigation are as follows:

The contract which the Western Union has with the Louisville and Nashville expires December 1, and the Western Union now has in the Federal Court a suit to condemn the right of way along the road now occupied by the telegraph company. That suit will come up upon matters of pleadings December 3.

In the meantime the Louisville and Nashville, through counsel, has notified the Western Union that if the Western Union does not remove its property on December 1 the Louisville and Nashville will claim that property. The suit Tuesday was simply for an injunction to retain the status quo until the condemnation litigation be determined.

Brain Power Always First.

The average brain worker, it is safe to allege, if given the preference between perfect bodily health accompanied by a sluggish brain, and the discomfort arising from physical suffering allied to a bright, active brain in good working trim would doubtless choose the latter.

Impossible.

NO ONE STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

The celebrated Dr. Abernethy of London was firmly of the opinion that disorders of the stomach were the most prolific source of human ailments in general. A recent medical writer says: "every feeling, emotion and affection reports at the stomach (through the system of nerves) and the stomach is affected accordingly. It is the vital center of the body * * * ." He continues, "so we may be said to live (through) the stomach." He goes on to show that the stomach is the vital center of the body. For weak stomachs and the consequent indigestion or dyspepsia, and the multitude of various diseases which result therefrom, no medicine can be better suited as a curative agent than

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"Several months ago I suffered from a severe pain right under the breast-bone," writes Mrs. G. M. MURKEN, of Corona, Calif. "I had suffered from it, off and on, for several years. I also suffered from heart-burn, did not know what was the matter with me. I tried several medicines but they did me no good. Finally, I was told it was my liver. I did not dare to eat as it made me worse. Whenever I swallowed anything it seemed that I would faint—it hurt so. I grew very thin and weak from not eating. Was told to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took five bottles of it, and could feel myself getting better from the first dose. I could eat a little without pain and grew strong fast. To-day I am strong and well and can do a big day's work with ease. Can eat everything and have put on flesh wonderfully. I will say to all sufferers write to Dr. Pierce. He has my undying gratitude."

REAL ORIGIN OF THE PEARL

Science Has Rudely Shattered Poetic Idea That Has Been Held For Centuries.

For many centuries, even until comparatively recent times, it was the common belief that pearls were drops of dew that gained entrance into the shell of an oyster, and were there transpired into lustrous gems. Arab and Indian divers still believe that at certain seasons oysters come to the surface and suck in the rain-drops that later become pearls. Science, however, has rudely shattered this poetic fancy, and discovered the real origin to be a worm. Dr. Hugh M. Smith gives some interesting information on this subject in the National Geographic Magazine.

We now know that almost any foreign body—a grain of sand, a bit of mud or shell, a piece of seaweed or a small animal—may by its irritation cause the mollusk to cover it with nacre and make it the nucleus of a pearl; but the largest part of the annual pearl-crop of the world is due to parasites that normally pass a part of their life-cycle within the shell of the pearl-oyster.

Minute spherical larvae of marine worms known as Cestodes become embedded in the soft tissues, as many as forty having been found in one Ceylon oyster. As the result of irritation, the oyster forms a protecting sac about the intruder, and then, if the larva dies, its body is gradually converted into carbonate of lime, and the pearly mass proceeds to grow with the shell.

If the larva lives, it may pass into the body of the strong-jawed trigger-fishes which prey on the pearl-oysters, there undergoing further development. Ultimately it reaches the body of the great rays, which in turn eat the trigger-fishes. In the rays the worms attain full development, and produce larvae that are cast into the sea and find lodgment in pearl-oysters. Thus the cycle is begun once more.

We may literally accept the saying of a celebrated French investigator, that "the most beautiful pearl is in reality only the brilliant sarcophagus of a worm."

NO SATISFYING PASS FIEND

Comedian Relates Story That Would Seem to Be Almost the Limit Even in That Line.

Raymond Hitchcock is to be credited with this story, says the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times Star. He deserves it, for of late he has milked cows from the wrong side, fussed with his wife on the deck of an ocean liner and been kicked into the water by a motor boat in his hunt for first page position and something better than a No. 4 headline. "An old friend of mine came to me last winter," said Hitchcock, "and asked me to get him tickets to the show in which I was then appearing. 'I would if I could, old chap,' I said, 'but honestly, I can't get 'em for you. I have no account at the box office. The only way in which I can get you tickets would be to pay for them out of my own pocket.'"

"'Aw,' said he, 'any old place will do. I don't care where I sit. See if they won't let you have a pair for me. Explain to 'em that I'm an old friend.'"

Mr. Hitchcock admittedly lost his temper. He pulled a five-dollar bill out of his pocket and walked toward the box office window. They had been standing in the theater lobby. "I'll prove to you," he said, sourly, "that I have been telling the truth." And to the man behind the cash register: "Two seats at a dollar and a half each." And then he handed them to the persistent pass grafter. "Now," said he, "I hope you're satisfied."

"'Yep,' said the other. 'I am, and my wife will be tickled to death. But, gee, my sister-in-law will be disappointed because I only got two.'"

Size and Strength.

Increase of population is not necessarily a good thing of itself, nor is a low birth rate necessarily a bad thing. Increase of population does not even make any necessary additions to the national strength.

England would be a stronger nation than she is today if her population had not out-run her food supply. Many thoughtful observers believe the same true of Germany.

Patrons of the prize ring used to say that a man weighing 180 pounds weighed enough. A man of that weight was deemed big enough to encounter any adversary, and additional weight was thought as likely to be a hindrance as a help.

The rule may hold good with nations as with men, though to be sure no one knows where to draw the line. But the nation which is much too big to feed itself has taken on a handicap, to say the least.

Bicycles in France.

The number of bicycles in France appears to be on the increase, judging from the latest returns for 1911, which give a total of 3,009,626, as compared with 2,697,406 of the previous year. The total revenue from the tax on bicycles last year amounted to upward of nine millions of francs, or about half a million francs more than in 1910. The ten departments having the greatest number of bicycles last year were those of the Seine, with 309,759; Nord, 159,656; Seine-et-Oise, 97,271; Gironde, 75,390; Pas-de-Calais, 70,610; Seine-Inferieure, 62,997; Maine-et-Loire, 60,265; Saone-et-Loire, 58,595; Seine-et-Marne, 55,594; Loiret, 54,510. The department with the smallest number was that of Lozere, with only 2,920 cycles.

For a New Umbrella.
Before using a new umbrella inject a small quantity of vaseline into the hinge portions of the frame. Vaseline will not spread like oil and spoil the covering, and is a sure preventive against rust. Wet umbrellas should be stood on their handles to dry; this allows the water to run out of them, instead of into the part where the silk and ribs meet, thus causing the metal to rust and the silk to rot.

True View of Life.
I am more and more impressed with the duty of finding happiness.—George Eliot.

Eastern "Mining Promoters."
Seven natives at Dacca, India, were recently convicted of swindling women by pretending that they had the supernatural power of causing money deposited with them to be doubled in value in three days' time.

Slow Suicide.
"The entirely self-centered man is always a man slowly killing himself. Bachelors do not usually live as long as married men; yet no observer of the world would maintain that bachelors really take less care of themselves. No, they are always taking care of themselves, and it is the care that shortens their lives."—"In Cotton Wool," by W. B. Maxwell.

African Ants.
These insects sometimes set forward in such multitudes that the whole earth seems to be in motion. A corps of them once was seen to attack and cover an elephant quietly feeding in a pasture. In eight hours nothing was to be seen but the skeleton of that enormous animal completely picked. The business was done, and the enemy marched on after fresh prey. Such power have the smallest creatures acting in concert.

You Want the Best— Not the Cheapest

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.

We can prove it—Send for new catalogue

Rich Dismissed.

Walter Rich, arrested Monday by Patrolman Fred Link for alleged complicity in the wrecking of a Louisville and Nashville train on the night of Friday, November 6, and upon a warrant sworn out by A. L. Summers, special agent for the railroad, was dismissed Wednesday morning because of lack of evidence against him.

Rich was arrested Wednesday afternoon when he arrived in Paris from Livingston, where he resides with his parents. He was taken before Judge Dundon and his trial set for Wednesday morning. On motion of County Attorney George Batterton the warrant against Rich was dismissed.

Rich formerly worked for the Louisville and Nashville and was a witness for James Delph, a white boy who was sent to the reform school from Mt. Vernon on a charge of having attempted to wreck a train on the south end about two years ago. It was said that he and Rich had been together a great deal of the time since.

A warrant against Delph was sworn out before Squire L. J. Fretwell, supported by the affidavit of Mr. Summers, and sent to Cummins, O., where he is said to be located.

Both Rich and Delph were in Paris on the day the wrecking of the north-bound train No. 32 near Bedford Station occurred and in which Engineer James Lemons was killed and several trainmen and passengers injured.

They were seen in the vicinity of the wreck late that evening. According to the statement of Rich they spent the night at the Louisville and Nashville pump station in this city, and left for Ohio. Rich returned to Livingston about a week ago, Delph remaining in Cummins, O.

Famous Stallion Sold.

John T. Collins & Son, of North Middletown, have sold to J. B. Bowles and L. P. Dickerson, of Bardonia, Ky., for a private consideration the sensational young stallion, Beechwood Pride, formerly Harmon 4716. Being sired by the famous stallion, Roosevelt, and out of a mare by Chester Dare, the young stallion is royally bred. Beechwood Pride won both the harness and saddle class at the Louisville State Fair, in 1911, but by reason of a temporary injury, from which he has fully recovered, he was kept from the show ring the past season.

Mr. Collins entered him in the $6,000 saddle stake at the Panama Exposition and if no mishaps occur his new owners expect to try for the rich stake.

Phillip N. Henry Falls to Death.

Mr. Phil Nippert Henry, aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Henry, of Louisville, died Monday night from the effects of injuries sustained from a fall from a narrow ledge in front of the Headley Building at Georgetown College, in Washington, D. C., where he was a student.

A playful prank is believed to have cost the youth his life. The ledge from which he fell is only a foot wide, running along the fourth floor, and the students at the institution frequently walked along the wall to surprise their friends who were occupying the front rooms of the building.

The faculty of the college had recently issued orders forbidding the practice. The position of the body when found indicated that he had walked out on the ledge a distance of several feet when he fell to the ground fifty feet below. His neck, both legs and right wrist were broken.

He was rushed to a hospital immediately after the accident by a member of the faculty but died before an operation could be performed.

The young man was born in Paris in 1895 and since moving away with his parents has often visited here. During the summer of 1910 and 1911 he spent several months with his grandfather, Mr. Phillip Nippert, who was apprised of his tragic death Monday night by telegram. He was unusually bright and was quite a favorite with the young men of his age in Paris.

He was a graduate of the public school of Louisville, being educated in the Manual training school. He entered Georgetown College last September as a member of the Freshman class.

Mr. Percy Henry, father of the unfortunate boy, left Louisville immediately upon the receipt of the news of his son's death and returned with the remains Wednesday night. The funeral will be held in Louisville today. Miss Julia O'Brien, a life long friend of Mrs. Henry, left Tuesday for Louisville and Mr. Phillip Nippert, Sr., father of Mrs. Henry, left Wednesday morning for that city to remain until after the funeral.

Nearing Completion.

A large force of bricklayers are employed in the construction of the addition to the building on Main street formerly occupied by King Redmon, which has been leased by the firm of Yerkes & Prichard. The building is being rushed to completion before the arrival of cold weather.

The two story brick building of Martin Doyle, which has been under construction for the past two months, is now under cover and plasterers are at work. It is expected the building will be completed and ready for occupancy within the next thirty days.

Old Offender Given Limit.

Jim Bayless, colored, frequently in police court, was tried yesterday before Judge January yesterday on a breach of the peace charge and given the limit fine of $100 and costs and 50 days in jail. Bayless is alleged to have beaten a negro woman by the name of Sallie Jackson.

Fallen Tree Delays Train.

The crew and passengers of a Louisville and Nashville train operating between Paris and Lexington, and known as the "dinky" train, had an unusual and exciting experience late Monday afternoon near Warrentown, Fayette county, which delayed the train for two hours and came near resulting seriously for the crew.

The train was running along at a rate of about 25 miles an hour when a tall tree beside the track which had in some way caught fire, fell across the track, striking the moving engine and endangering two lives. The engineer caught sight of the burning tree and endeavored to pass before the towering mass of flame fell, but just as the engine got opposite, the burning tree came down with a crash, striking the locomotive and scattering fire about the heads of the engine crew.

The engine was so badly damaged that a delay of about two hours was occasioned in chopping the burning tree top to pieces to get it out of the way of the train so that the flames would not set fire to the coaches, and in making repairs on the engine.

Fretwell this morning, and was held to await the action of the Bourbon county grand jury, which will convene in this city next week at the November term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

Spears is charged with cutting and wounding Bush Bishop, a farmer, following a dispute over an account. The difficulty took place at the office of the firm on Third street on Thursday, November 14, resulting in Bishop being stabbed in the left side.

Bishop's wound did not result seriously and since the trouble has been under treatment at a Lexington hospital, being discharged from the institution Wednesday. Spears executed bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance in Circuit Court.

Narrow Escape.

Wm. Sadler, employed at the plumbing shop of John Merringer, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon, when, while washing a window in the front of the store, the ladder upon which he was standing fell through the large plate glass. Several large pieces of glass narrowly missed him in the fall, but luckily he escaped without injury.

Sewer Being Constructed.

The construction of the new sewerage system for White Addition, including the Massie Memorial Hospital, is well under way; the lower end connecting the city system is about completed. Smith, of the engineering corps of the Louisville and Nashville.

Heavy Suits Filed.

The suit of John and R. W. Noel, Samuel and H. P. Mason, Jr., Thomas W. Scott and Jerry Taylor against the Greenbaum Distillery Company, of Midway, was entered Tuesday at the special term of the Franklin Circuit Court. All the defendants, excepting Jerry Taylor, are suing for $10,000 damages, and he is suing for $50,000 in the consolidated cases, in which it is alleged that Elkhorn creek waters are so polluted by distillery slop that the fish are killed and the running water is made unfit for stock to drink. The distillery contends that the waters are polluted by sewage from Lexington. The trial will continue several days.

C., will in the next few weeks give a home talent performance at the opera house in this city for the benefit of the Chapter's hospital fund, and arrangements are now being completed looking to the production of a clever little musical comedy entitled "Mr. Bob." The proceeds of the entertainment will go towards furnishing a room in the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, who have been here for several days this week completing arrangements, have presented the play with much success in the towns adjoining Paris. Mrs. O. P. Carter and Mrs. Kate Mann, representing the chapter, are assisting them in the work.

It is planned to give the performance the first week in December, but the exact date has not been definitely decided upon. The cast will be made up entirely of local talent and this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a meeting with the children of the city school will be held in the school building. FRECKLES COMING

The play charms, as does Freckles himself, with all his tender simplicity, and unaffected naturalisms.

THEATRICAL."FRECKLES."

"Freckles," with its familiar scenes, will be at the Paris Grand Nov. 30. It has proven a theatrical event wherever it has played, and should be an event here.

The trouble, time and expense necessary in staging a dramatization of some popular novel must be understood to be thoroughly appreciated. It is a hard task, and there are few who possess the stamina to bring the work to a successful issue. When it became known that the wonderful popularity of "Freckles" was an absolute truth, and with the sale of the book, gaining entree into thousands of homes, there were a number of New York producing managers who immediately wanted the dramatic rights to Gene Stratton-Porter's story of the Lumberlost. Authors and copyright owners of books, however, with such popularity as this one, are slow to relinquish their award.

The question arose who was to dramatize "Freckles." To be real dramatic worth a book play must stick to the text of the story in both word and deed, and this requires more than a playwright; it requires a knowledge of stage intricacies and craftsmanship. Neil Twomey was given the assignment, and went to work diligently. That he succeeded, even above the hopes of Delamater, is attested by four first class companies playing on tour this season.

The success of "Freckles," it is said, lies in its simplicity. There are no characters in modern fiction nor on the stage endowed with such simple nobility, sweetness and wonderful delineation as given "Freckles" and his sweetheart, "The Swamp Angel," by its author. Mrs. Porter has studied nature, she has lived all her life in the great Lumberlost swamp region of Indiana, studying it and writing about it. She has achieved a position which can be disputed by none; her fiction and her play reaches is in popular demand. It is the newest and most popular of book plays.

Charles Frohman will present Maude Adams in James Matthew Barrie's classic play, "Peter Pan," at the Lexington Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday, November 26 and 27. This bit of news is certain not only to interest but to delight all classes of theatergoers, for Miss Adams is the best loved personality on the American stage. As for "Peter Pan," everyone has heard of the boy who wouldn't grow up and his adventures in the Never-Never Land. Miss Adams when first seen in this whimsical work by the cleverest of modern British writers, scored the greatest success that she had known. Her early tours in it were notable triumphs. Again and again there has been a demand that she revive it, and it is in answer to this demand that the work is now being given. It is said of "Peter Pan" that it is the daintiest and most beautiful fairy tale which has found its way to the worldly, noisy modern stage. It is a whimsical drama of the child heart which no one but James Barrie could have written and no one but Maude Adams make real. Mr. Frohman has surrounded the actress with a strong and well balanced company and given the play a series of elaborate settings.

The sale of seats will open Saturday, November 23. The prices will range from fifty cents to two dollars. All orders sent to Manager Scott will receive prompt attention it accompanied by an emittance and a self addressed envelope.

The Courier Journal of Wednesday contained the following account of the ball given by Dr. and Mrs. Louis Frank Tuesday evening for their daughter, Miss Julia Cecil Frank:

"One of the most beautiful balls of the winter was given at the Woman's Club last evening by Dr. Louis Frank and Mrs. Frank in honor of the formal debut of their daughter, Miss Julia Cecil Frank.

"Dr. Frank, Mrs. Frank and Miss Frank were assisted in receiving by Mrs. B. A. Frank, of Paris, and Miss Julia Cosby, of Washington, who are their house guests.

"In the reception rooms and the long hall leading to the ball room the doorways and windows were garlanded in Southern smilax. The electroliers were covered under masses of the green and the stair rail had a deep border of the smilax covering it and hanging over in a deep fringe. Along the sides of the hallway trees were placed, forming an avenue.

"The many flowers sent the debutante were placed near the entrance of the ball room, where the receiving party stood and met their guests.

"In the ballroom the decorations, which were most effective, were in Southern smilax and American Beauty roses. From the studding, which extends around the entire room, hung a border of the smilax, and four graceful garlands of the smilax starred with the roses, extended from the center of the ceiling to the four corners of the room. From the tops of the windows festoons of smilax combined with clusters of roses were draped to the electroliers between the windows.

"The electroliers were covered with the smilax, with the light shining through the green. In every window were palms banked at the base with Southern smilax.

"There were two orchestras playing alternately during the evening. One was on the stage behind a screen of greens, banked high and formed of rubber plants, bay trees, sago palms and Boston ferns, while the other musicians were seated in the balcony over the entrance of the ballroom, the railing being hung with the smilax starred with the American Beauty roses.

"The supper was served on the second floor, the windows and doorways being draped with loose sprays of Southern smilax. The guests were seated at three large tables and small tables of four and six. The debutante table had a mound of American Beauty roses in the center. The favors for the debutantes were corsage bouquets of American Beauty roses and lillies of the valley. American Beauty boutonnieres were for their escorts.

"Mrs. Frank wore a lavender chiffon mounted over cream satin with trimmings of lace. Her flowers were violets and lillies of the valley.

"Miss Frank's gown was a beautiful imported model of white charmeuse, with draperies of shadow lace, the bodice being made entirely of the lace, having a filmy scarf over the shoulders which extended down and formed part of the skirt. The draperies were caught with rhinestone trimmings. Her flowers were a bouquet of pink roses, violets and lillies of the valley.

"Miss Julia Cosby, of Washington, wore a costume of white charmeuse and white chiffon with trimmings of pink French roses, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

"Mrs. B. A. Frank, of Paris, was in a black and white chiffon with a pompadour border, and an underdress of pat green satin."

Dear Amy:-

Of course, you absolutely must have a nice parlor so you can entertain company. But I believe in having a nice parlor for your own family all the time, and that they should use it.

Children are influenced so much by their surroundings, and the best way to keep the boys at home nights, and out of mischief, is to make home attractive and happy for them.

Simple Club Doings.

While Mrs. W. was busy in her kitchen preparing the light refreshments for her bridge club, which includes the more well-to-do of the neighboring county, Sally Hill, a poor farmer's child, came in with a donation of home-made pickles. "My mother belonged to a club, too," said Sally. "Does she? And what do they do? Play cards?" "No." "Sew?" "Oh, no; they just draw names out of a hat to see who'll have the next meeting."

Woman and Suffrage.

droll that woman should vote.—Ralph

Had to Know the Time.

"I understand," said the judge, "that you stole the watch of the doctor who had just written a prescription for you at the free dispensary. What

"Well, your honor," said the prisoner,
"it is true, but I found myself in a

To Make Tires of Paper.

Experiments have recently been made in Europe looking to the utilization of paper in the manufacture of pneumatic tires, tests recently made having convinced the experimenters that paper has the strength of metal, the elasticity of rubber, and a cheapness that is to be found in neither of these materials: all important qualities.

Thief-Proof Umbrella.

An umbrella made thief-proof by being locked in such a manner that it cannot be opened has been invented by a London cloak-room attendant.
The locking device consists of a metal collar, one end of which may be slipped down over the rib-tips, and is securely locked to them by revolving the three metal rings. These rings bear the letters and numerals of the secret combination.

Beauty in Expression.

If the great number of women who believe that they are sadly lacking in beauty who pass valuable time and money in vainly trying to acquire it could but be brought to realize that the highest form of beauty is that of expression! This is attained by the possession of inward graces, which frequently transform a so-called plain face into one more beautiful and winning than the combination of a perfect complexion and regular features.

Painful Discovery.

"Well," said the dentist as with a steel instrument he tapped Mr. Ack-lin's tooth, "I told you when I put that crown on that it might give you trouble. I never guarantee a crowned tooth." "Oh, I know. I wish I'd had the blame thing pulled!" moaned Mr. Acklin sadly. "I've found out to my sorrow that uneasy rests the tooth that wears a crown!"

Must Be Warned.

The Prussian building code has just received a rather remarkable amendment. It provides that the huts for the use of laborers connected with building operations must be suitably warmed between November 1 and April 1—when the outside temperature reaches fourteen degrees, that is, eighteen below freezing.

Burley Tobacco Growers Boost Your Own Brands

We, as you know, are using your choicest tobacco in the brands of Strater Bros. Branch, and you know that nobody grows better tobacco than you do. You know how we manufacture, so you know that these brands are perfection. Now we want you to help us sell these brands this year even better than our best previous years. The reasons you should so help are as follows:

You Are Part Owner

The fact that you grow the tobacco makes you part owner of all these brands.
Every time that one sells you profit.
Every word that you say in favor of any helps to increase those sales. Every brand that you buy for your own use helps make those profits better. All our interests—your interests and ours—are pooled in these several tobaccos. It is logic that you should bend all of your efforts, however small, in the selling.

The United Power of 40,000 Buyers

40,000 men in a section wield an enormous buying influence. If all ask for these brands when they buy tobacco there results a gigantic sale. And big sales are the best advertising known.

To Dealers! Dealers throughout the United States know these famous tobaccos.
They are Nation-wide sellers—popular brands. They are helping these dealers to prosper. They are made from the pick of the famous crops of 40,000 growers.
Every one of these growers is boosting them all. So are all of their friends. This method is bringing the profits to dealers—to those who sell these brands. Are they working for you?
Here are the mild, fragrant smoking brands—GOLDEN GLOW—PENNY POST—FULL PAY.
Here are the delicious chewing brands—INDEX—BY JOE TWIST—CUP—DAY'S WORK
—ON THE SQUARE—TORCHLIGHT—STRATER'S NATURAL LEAF.
Put them into your stock. See how they sell.

Haven't you often thought as you have been working away, pegging away hard all day—how nice it would be if, after the weary day's work is done, you could go to a home all YOUR own?
How nice and wonderful it would be to be able to forget the worries and hardships—forget them in the happiness of home life?
Often you have thought these thoughts—wished that the thoughts might be gratified—and not knowing—perhaps not realizing that the ability to gratify, is within easy reach. Within easy reach—your easy reach—easier than you can possibly imagine, and that wish gratifier, YOUR wish gratifier, is this store. Come then, ALL who have the "home" wish—the "home" longing. It will be our pleasure to gratify it. Beautiful furnishings—most reasonably priced—to completely furnish YOUR home just as YOU want it. Terms of payment to suit YOUR convenience.

Let this Trade Mark, "Buck's," be your guide in choosing your new Stove or Range.

Were first cost or purchase price the only cost to be considered in the purchase of a new stove or range, others might be given due consideration, but when first cost or purchase price is but a drop in the bucket compared to the cost to follow, "Buck's" should be given the consideration.

Actual cost of a stove or range is measured not by dollars and cents originally paid for the stove, but by the years of continuous service that it renders to the user. By the cost of fuel that it consumes, often increased materially by poor stove construction, eliminated entirely in "Buck's" by careful and painstaking construction.

Dependable material, careful and painstaking construction reduce the actual cost of "Buck's" to the minimum. Actual cost, the only cost to be considered, then makes your choice of a "Buck's" imperative. "Buck's" are built for beauty, convenience, durability and economy as no other stoves or ranges can possibly be built. Sent to your home on 30 days' trial. After that, $1.00 cash and $1.00 per week.

Politics and Friendship.
"Have you decided how you are going to vote?" "Yes; but let's change the subject. There's no reason why you and I should not continue to be friends."

Escapes an Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Some times I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, its the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free.

Perfect Compliment.

We please ourselves that in you we meet one whose temper was long since tried in the fire, and made equal to all events; a man so truly in love with the greatest future that he cannot be diverted to any less.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington. For sale by all dealers.

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at Oberdorfer's.

Died While Decorating Grave.

A painfully sad occurrence took place recently in the Belfast City cemetery, when an aged man named Charles Kildea, who was engaged in decorating a grave, suddenly became ill, fell to the ground, and expired in a few moments.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening pasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.

Taking No Chances.

At a domestic economy lesson, the Northern Christian Advocate reports, little Emily was asked to state briefly the best way to keep milk from souring. Her answer was certainly brief and to the point. It ran: "You should leave it in the cow."

His Limit.

The Father—"Can you support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed?" The Suitor—"Yes, but not in the style to which her mother and you have been trying to make me think for the past six months she has been accustomed."

Delicately Expressed.

Little Bobby had been eating raspberry pie and had left the marks of it at both sides of his mouth, when a little friend of three came in and said to Bobbie's mother: "Mrs. C—, can I have some of what Bobbie's got on his face?"

Just About.

The man who, for fear of being called a tightwad, deprives the children of their rights is about the most despicable specimen of humanity that one can mention off-hand.

Tag, Rag and Bobtail.

From tagg or teg—a doe in the second year of her age; rag, a herd of deer at rutting time; bobtail, a fawn just after it has been weaned, and the phrase means an indiscriminate collection of sheep or deer.

Whale Whips Five Crews.

The largest whale ever captured in that vicinity was caught in Fred Perez' fish nets, near Santa Cruz. Five launches tried to tow the monster to the pier without success. Nets and ropes broke and the task was abandoned. The whale was fifty feet long.

Matter of Diet.

"How do you tell the difference between a yacht and a sailboat?" said the girl with the inquiring mind. "By lookin' into the pantry," replied Captain Cleet. "If she carries plenty of refreshments and seagars, she's a yacht. If it's mostly plain victuals she's a sailboat."—Washington Star.

In a Few Days.

Ikey—"This coat is green! You said it was plum color ven I bought it last night." Moses—"That's all right, my boy; it ain't turned ripe yet."

that candidate tells a person herself. No one knows—not even the campaign manager—for no record is kept of the votes issued and given to the contestants. All we know is the number of votes that are put in the ballot box, and this standing is published in the paper each issue. The campaign is run on a fair and square basis, and every candidate will have impartial treatment. The candidates who get the most votes on subscriptions will be the owners of the valuable prizes after the campaign is over.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENT.

As a special inducement for new subscribers, the contestants are authorized to make the following offer: Every person who subscribes for the Bourbon News between now and the close of the contest will have his subscription dated in advance from January 1, 1913.

For instance, if a person paid two dollars today, his subscription would be paid to January 1, 1914, and he would get all the papers between now and the first of the year free.

All persons who are in arrears after the contest closes will be cut off the list. A recent ruling of the post-office department forces the newspapers to keep their subscriptions paid in advance. Otherwise they will lose their low mail rate and be forced to pay first class postage.

TWO SPECIAL PRIZES.

Have you seen the two handsome Fountain Pens which are on display at the News office, and which will be given away as special prizes to the two contestants who turn in the most money on subscriptions between now and the close of the contest? All subscriptions turned in on these special prizes will also count on the regular prizes.

STANDING OF CONTESTANTS.

The list of candidates and the number of votes each has will be printed in this paper each issue. Votes must be in this office at noon previous to the day of publication. Votes coming in after that time will be published in the next issue.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

A pretty event of the season was the reception given by Mrs. S. M. Allen Wednesday afternoon for Mesdames Harry Letton, A. S. Miller and Irvine Hornback, of New York. The Allen home on Main street, a stately mansion of English architecture, was the scene of the delightful occasion.

The spacious front hall was decorated with potted plants and ferns. The guests were received by Mrs. C. M. Best, who ushered them into the presence of the receiving line, which occupied the position of the drawing room. The entire house was darkened and softly illuminated with pink candles in silver candelabra.

The decorations in the drawing room were pink. The receiving line was made up of the following: Mesdames S. M. Allen, Harry Letton, A. A. Miller, M. C. Grimes, Irvine Hornback and J. R. Bush, the last two named being from New York and Lexington respectively. Others assisting in entertaining were Miss Bettie Vimont and Mrs. L. R. Rogers.

From here the guests were ushered by Mrs. Owen Ingels into an adjoining room where tea and sandwiches were served. Here the decorations were yellow with large yellow chrysanthemums on the center table. Mesdames Mattie Purnell, W. S. Judy, O. M. Johnson and Miss Lannie Layson served the guests with tea and sandwiches, after which they were escorted to the beautiful and spacious dining room. The table was covered with cluny lace over pink with a bunch of pink chrysanthemums as a centerpiece. Cut glass compots were filled with pink confectations. Brick cream and individual cakes in pink were served.

One of the most pleasant features connected with the afternoon was the beautiful musical program rendered by Miss Esther K. Nell, violinist, in charge of the stringed instrument department of the M. F. C., accompanied by Capt. Howard Freas, pianist, of M. M. I. More than one hundred guests called during the hours.

Local Warehouse Opens Dec. 1.

The large tobacco warehouse of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co., in Barnes Addition is rapidly nearing completion; the next few days will be under cover. It is the opinion that the building will be ready for opening the first week in December.

Manager Kenney Nichols has been advised by all the leading manufacturers in the country that they will have representatives on the local market.

To facilitate the handling and shipping of the tobacco the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. has under construction a sidetrack running into the immense warehouse.

All of the brick and concrete work on the building has been completed, and only a small portion of the roofing now remains to be finished. Macadamized driveways leading from Barnes avenue to the building were finished several days ago.

With the completion of the structure only a few days off, all that remains to complete a successful opening will be a season for the handling of tobacco. The local house with its many facilities will command a great per cent of the tobacco raised in this section, and it is expected that crops from all the adjoining counties will be placed on the local market.

Large Sum Inheritance Tax.

The largest tax judgment ever rendered in the Montgomery County Court has just been prepared by the efficient County Attorney, Earl W. Senff, fixing the inheritance tax due from the estate of the late Henry C. Hall, who died some time ago in that county. The amount paid was $5,524.25. Of this sum not one cent is secured by the county, the entire amount going into the hands of the State.
